Wanda Wife and Harry Husband

Dr. Clare Fowler

Wanda Wife

Wanda is a fashion editor for Vogue. She is going on assignment this summer in Reykjavik to oversee a month long photo shoot. She wants their 2 teenagers to come with her. She normally doesn't have them for the summer, but feels like this is an unmissable opportunity.

Harry Husband

Harry has planned an amazing backpack adventure for his children to disengage and connect with nature. Wilderness, camping, foraging--teaching them skills they won't learn in school. He is hurt that Wanda wants to take this time from him.
